Chilocco Initiates Vocational Program

Rick Lavis States That BIA Made Mistake

Recently Mr. Rick Lavis, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Interior for Indian Affairs met with the Chilocco staff, students and Alumni along with various tribal leaders and friends from Ark City, Kansas and Newkirk, Okla. to discuss the announcement that Chilocco would be closed at the end of the 1978-79 school year. His visit was primarily made to determine if the Washington office had acted hastily in their decision to close Chilocco and Ft. Sill Indian Schools.

At the beginning of the meeting Mr. Lavis was introduced by Stanley Speaks, Area Director and given the floor to explain the Washington closing decision. Mr. Lavis stated that he was sorry that the decision had leaked out to the press before he had got down to Chilocco to determine if they had made a mistake. He also said that if they (the BIA officials) in Washington had made a mistake they would rectify it. He was willing to hear any arguments the audience might have for keeping Chilocco open. This was all that many people in the audience needed. They bombarded Mr. Lavis with reasons why Chilocco should stay open. Out of all the reasons various people gave the most predominately one given was the basic need of Indian students to be afforded an opportunity to continue to get an education here at Chilocco. Another reason often given was that with Chilocco's new vocational emphasis it served a need that was not offered anywhere else in Oklahoma BIA schools.

After 2 hours of discussion from the floor Mr. Lavis said that the BIA officials in Washington and himself may have made a mistake in ordering Chilocco's and Ft. Sill's budget cut after the 1979 fiscal year but he wanted to visit Ft. Sill and talk with them before he made any decision. After the meeting Mr. Lavis was shown

WELCOME STUDENTS

I guess this is an opportune time to welcome each of you to the 1978-79 school year. I want to particularly say "Welcome" to those students who are new at Chilocco.

For the "old hands" how does it feel to be eating chow in what use to be a dormitory game room, or sitting in a classroom which use to be a sleeping room? Well, we had to close down the old chow (Leupp) Hall and the classroom building (Hayworth Hall). By being required to close these facilities, we had to find alternate space. This is how Wheeler Hall became the Academic/ Library/ Kitchen/ Dining Room complex. We are not completed with remodeling work but we are fortunate our staff were able and willing to pitch in and get it ready enough to serve its purpose. I also noticed many students helping out and certainly appreciate this.

Well, school is the same ole drag to many of you. To some it is a blessing. To me it is a challenge. To those who graduated from Chilocco's programs, it has been a savior. I hope each of you can see these opportunities as a stepping stone to better things in this hard life you have yet to live. I say this because you have yet to live about 60 years of your life and what you can acquire and achieve now will make the next 60 years an easier life.

There have been some basic changes in your areas which may affect your stay These changes affect your responsibilities toward yourself and the school. For example, you earn merit points and benefit or lose points and end up in a more strict program.

There are scheduled activities which allows you to assist one another in staying out of problem areas. I hope you will help each other and remind each other to stay in line for the general benefit of all students.

The work study is still available to help you in developing better habits, experience the world of work, and realize economic independency. Take advantage of it and be thrifty with your earnings. This will make it easier on the folks back home. Remember, your merits count in all areas of your stay and is a healthy way to start out on the right track.

Vocational skills is our prime program. If you successfully complete the required hours you will be able to go directly into employment. Your instructor will do all they can to find placement for you. Of couse, you will also earn a high school diploma, a vocational certificate or both.

Our enrollment is not what it should be. The rumors that Chilocco might close probably kept students from coming. Well, this rumor has been settled. I hope prospective students will now begin to apply for Chilocco. You as students probably know some one back home who could benefit. We have the information and application package they can use to apply for Chilocco, or you can pick them up from the Registrar or main office and mail them. Lets get out and get with our sports program and make this a prosperous year.

I hope I can catch up with my chores and begin my sessions with staff and student groups to begin our active long range planning and improvement continuations.

Again welcome back to school and let us make this a worthwhile campaign.

Jimmy Baker

The Time Is NOW!

By Wilma Pewo

Chilocco's school year has started with great enthusiasm by both the faculty and students. We have great interest to make and keep Chilocco an outstanding Vocational-Technical institution for Indian girls and boys. To do this, we need to dedicate ourselves to hard work, involvement, cooperation and communication with each other.

So let's start the year on a positive note and keep attending classes regularly every day and be on time for all of your classes. This self-discipline has to come from you--YOU must decide that it is the right thing for you to attend classes.

around the campus by Mr. Baker and left Chilocco highly impressed with what he saw and heard. According to the Superintendent, Mr. Baker, Mr. Lavis visited the new kitchen and classrooms, some vocational shops and Antone Hall. He was briefed on the program emphasis and capacity of the dormitories which is now 250.

Later in the week at Oklahoma City Mr. Lavis held a news conference and announced that as of now Chilocco and Ft. Sill would not be closed after this school year because of the specialized programs both schools offered and the fact that Riverside Indian School could not accommodate the students from both schools.

We commend Mr. Lavis for his honesty and his admission of mistakes and willingness to reverse his decision.

Blessings

So many will be the blessings, and so short will be the time I'll stay with you.
You can say that I'm your friend,
you can see my life begin and end.
My life is but a poem.
I have written in many ways.
Just to say to you,
"I'd like you'd to be whatever you would like to be. You'll always be Special to me."

Chilocco Loses To Riverside

By Wichita Blaine

On September 8, 1978, the Chilocco Indians traveled to Riverside for their first game of the season. Chilocco won the toss and received the ball on their own 20 yard line. The very first play of the game C.I.S. fumbled to Riverside and they immediately moved in to score. The extra point was no good. The score, R.I.S.-6, C.I.S.-0. Chilocco was brothered all night with fumbles and penalties. They did get a break though when Eddie Henry intercepted a pass on the R.I.S. 15 yard line but failed to move on in to score. Late in the game Joey Watkins caught a pass good for 41 yeards, But on the next play C.I.S. fumbled and Riverside recovered to end the drive. The C.I.S. Indians put up a good game but found themselves out scored 36-0. The Chilocco Indians are at home against the Fairfax Red Devils on Sept. 15.

STARSCOPE

VIRGO (Aug. 22-Sept. 22): Virgos are supposed to be practical, neat, and good at details. There are people who say Virgos are cool and nagging--prove 'em wrong! You can be a perfectionist, but in this day of "once over lightly," it should be a badge of honor! Most of you don't give your affections easily, but to your loved ones, you're super friends and helpmates. Work on your self-confidence, and conquer shyness; you've got a lot to give. School starts with fine vibes. Social life could well be combined with a new hobby--and a new love! Parents may need an extra dose of care; talk it out, but add tact to honesty.

LIBRA:(Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Are you excited about all your new subjects? If so, pitch in now and get ahead. If not, find the course change that will make the difference. This school year looks like a growth period. Feel good about it!

SCORPIO:(Oct. 23-Nov. 22): You could get caught up in romantic fantasies (that new face at school?). Keep a realistic perspective and it will do good! Open communication is vital now--even best friends aren't mind readers. Energy should be high!

SAGITTARIUS:(Nov. 23-Dec. 20): Don't let back-to-school confusion baffle you; everything will sort itself out. Tact is needed at home to avoid futile arguments. You might feel like pulling a sneaky stunt-don't do it! Physically you should feel great, and romance may pop up unexpectedly!

CAPRICORN:(Dec. 21-Jan. 19): New classes and new faces may make your summer friends seem far away, but a card or call could do wonders. Reorganize your work area, straighten up. Studying is easier in a neat space. A favor you did long ago may be returned!

AQUARIUS:(Jan. 20-Feb. 18): For the moment, be prepared to give more than you get. A loved one may need you. Make an effort to meet new people; join some school clubs this year. Lucky vibes for school's beginning.

PISCES:(Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Let go gently of friends who no longer seem to care. Work instead on some new relationships that you will feel better about. Trust your hunches. A new and good relationship is on the way!

ARIES:(Mar. 21-Apr. 20): Social life seems promising and fun, but don't overdo. Organize carefully to avoid frazzled nerves and colds! New people in your life could hang around a long time. Be open!

TAURUS:(Apr. 21-May 20): There may be storm clouds in your romantic sky--so beware. Stubbornness will get you nowhere---understanding will!! But by midmonth the sun should shine again. Stamina is your asset now!

GEMINI:(May 21-June 20): Confused and irritated? Maybe you've been too starry-
